

By answering this question, we can determine your eligibility for additional BC Construction Association workforce support programs, which may apply to provide an applicant with access to free training, tools, and additional career support. Your response to this question is not shared with potential employers. Age is not an eligibility criterion for our BCCA Apprenticeship Services programs.